

Fall Into Fashion Ad Book Form

On Sunday, November 14, 2010, Project HOPE Foundation will be hosting Fall Into Fashion, an afternoon tea and fashion show to benefit Hope Academy. This event will be held at Thornblade Club featuring fall and holiday fashions provided by Mariani's Boutique.

Hope Academy is a non-profit inclusion-based school that provides children with autism the opportunity to learn side-by-side with typical children in small classrooms settings. Hope Academy currently serves students from pre-school through 5th grade.

To help raise funds we will be compiling an advertisement book which will be given to each person attending this event. Average attendance over the last four years was 120 guests. All ads are the size of a standard business card, but need not be actual business cards. Coupons, announcements, or other promotional content are acceptable. Your business card or message can be included in this book for a donation of $25. Half page and full page ads are available for $75 and $150 respectively.

Participating is easy. Simply fill out the form below and return it along with your business card or ad copy. Please make checks payable to Project HOPE Foundation, Inc. Project HOPE Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Please do not staple your card or ad to this form; we will need clean, "camera-ready" copy.

Please return this completed form with your business card or ad copy to:
