

2011 HOPE Relay

Special Challenge

High Schools for Hope

Project HOPE, a local charity foundation that serves children of the Upstate, is holding a relay race this November. As part of the larger race, Upstate public and private high schools are challenged to put together a team to see which school can raise the most support for children with autism.

Which school can win bragging rights?

Runners: 52 Miles...12 Legs...6 Runners...1 Van Walkers: 26 Miles...6 Legs...6 Walkers...1 Van

An Amazing Adventure that Benefits Upstate Children with Autism
Saturday, November 19, 2011

Registration - $45 Per Runner | $35 Per Walker

www.projecthopesc.org/hope-relay

Registration Promo Code: Students4hope

Take $10 off entry
Join the relay today!

